I've got some preliminary info that I'll have walked down to you. What floor are you on? I couldn't find you in the directory.

Thanks.

Gina:

Sorry for the delay. It's very slow-going. I should have info for you by tomorrow morning at the latest. They're still working on it out in LA and I think with the time difference, I may not get it back by close of business (NY time) today.

Hello:

I have received clearance from the vendor on the titles that we have selected, as per last weeks memo. I wanted to double check with all of you that you do not foresee any problems with either the titles, nor the stars, from a PR, or legal, perspective. Please let me know by Wednesday May 11th if I have your respective clearances.

Thank you, Gina
